

We Worship Thee

Author: Alfred P. Gibbs circa: 1931

Father, we worship Thee, Thro' Thy beloved Son
And by the Spirit, now draw near, Before Thy holy throne.

We bless Thee Thou art Light, Righteous and true art Thou;
Holy and reverend Thy name, Our hearts before Thee bow.

We bless Thee Thou art Love, How vast that matchless grace,
Whose breadth and length and height and depth, No finite mind can trace!

We bless Thee most of all, For Him Who Thee unveiled;
Whose precious blood redemption wrought, And thus Thy heart revealed

For what Thou art, we praise, And worship and adore:
To Father, Son and Spirit be, The glory ever more!
